PRESS RELEASE

Bharathiar University organised the faculty recruitment process from 26th October, 2016 to 19th November 2016 to recruit faculty members to various departments of Bharathiar University and also to the Constituent College at Modakkurichi. The minutes of the Selection Committees were planned to be placed in the syndicate for its approval.

The Syndicate meeting was organised on 22.11.16 at 11am. The Syndicate considered the minutes of the Selection Committees and approved the same after a few clarifications. The Syndicate also authorized the Vice Chancellor to issue appointment orders to the selected candidates at the earliest, as the minutes of the Selection Committees has been approved on the floor itself.

Meanwhile a letter has been received on 21.11.16 from the Higher Education department (H2) of Govt. of Tamil Nadu, directing the University not to place the Selection Committees' minutes in the Syndicate. However the above said letter was communicated by the Registrar in charge to the VC's office on 25th evening and Vice chancellor only on 28th November, 2016. The letter received by the Registrar's office was not informed either to the Vice Chancellor who is also the Chairman of the Syndicate or the members of the Syndicate. The Syndicate unaware of the developments approved the Selection Committees' minutes and appointment orders were accordingly issued in the afternoon.

Only on 25th evening, the matter regarding the direction from Govt., was known to the VC's office. Based on this, the matter was clarified with the Registrar in charge and he was relieved from the office of Registrarship and Dr.B. Vanitha, Professor of Economics was appointed as Registrar in charge. In this regard, the Govt. has been updated with the latest developments.
